

The month of November is a reminder of the justice denied to tens of thousands of innocent Sikhs killed during the Sikh Genocide that took place in India in 1984. A candle light vigil is being organised by all major human rights groups, organizations and networks in the USA, UK, Canada, Germany, Switzerland, Australia, Belgium, France, Netherlands....

VOICES For FREEDOM

SIKH GENOCIDE - 1984 Pogroms

Date: 27 Nov 2009

Location: University of London, Gower Street,
London, WC1E 6BP

Timing: 4pm

Light a Candle to Fight the Darkness of Continuing Injustice against the Victims of the 1984

Candle Light Vigil

Light a Candle to Fight the Darkness of Continuing Injustice against the Victims of the 1984 Delhi Pogroms

Commemorating the 25th anniversary of the Delhi pogroms - the rape, looting, and massacre of thousands of Sikhs in Delhi during November 1984.

"Acts constituting enforced disappearance shall be considered a continuing offence as long as the perpetrators continue to conceal the fate and the whereabouts of persons who have disappeared and these facts remain un-clarified"-UN Declaration on Disappearance-Article 17

"Where governments at home or abroad have failed to bring accountability to those Indians responsible for the deaths of Sikhs and members of other minority groups, a new generation of Indians and Americans of Indian descent are beginning to take up their cause."

Barbara Crossette (UN correspondent), 2003

Speakers:

- Victims of 1984
- Human Rights Activists from major human rights groups such as Human Rights Watch, Amnesty International
- Sikh Student Activists

For more information contact: sikh.society@ucl.ac.uk
info@voicesforfreedom.org ,

Co-Sponsored by: Sikh Society University College London

All welcome. You are also encouraged to visit Voices For Freedom-the voice of the oppressed at www.voicesforfreedom.org